

Beginning with Tax Year 2019, the Georgia Department of Revenue will no longer print and mail 1099-G and 1099-INT forms.

The following documentation provides information on how to view and print your 1099 form(s) via the Georgia Tax Center (GTC).

How to Search for 1099 Forms – Without Logging into GTC

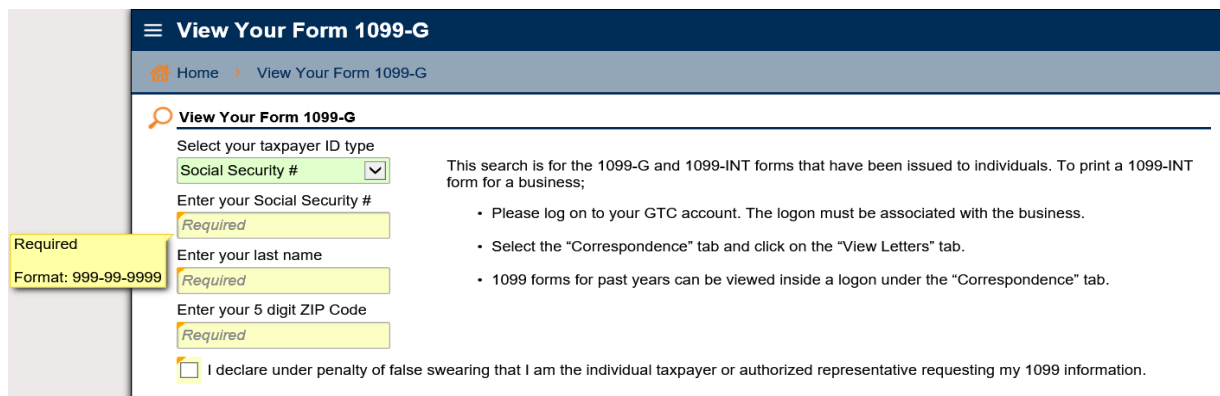

Note: This search only goes back to 2019 and never back more than 3 years. For 1099 forms prior to 2019 or that are outside of the 3 years range, you will need to follow the steps under How to Search for 1099 Forms – Inside of a GTC Login.

1. Go to the GTC login page (<https://gtc.dor.ga.gov/>)
2. Under the Individuals section, click View your form 1099-G or 1099-INT

The screenshot shows the Georgia Tax Center homepage. The 'Individuals' section is expanded, and the link 'View your form 1099-G or 1099-INT' is highlighted with a red box. Other sections visible include Log In, Common Tasks, Businesses, and Searches.

3. Provide the requested information

The screenshot shows the 'View Your Form 1099-G' page. The 'View Your Form 1099-G' section is highlighted. The required information fields are:

- Select your taxpayer ID type: Social Security # (dropdown menu)
- Enter your Social Security #: Required (text input field)
- Enter your last name: Required (text input field)
- Enter your 5 digit ZIP Code: Required (text input field)

 A declaration checkbox is also present: ☐ I declare under penalty of false swearing that I am the individual taxpayer or authorized representative requesting my 1099 information.

- Click the Search button that appears once the above step is completed

- Review last year's return to verify;
 - That you itemized last year.
 - That you received a refund.
- If you did not itemize your deductions on your federal return and you did not receive a refund, a 1099-G will not be issued for that year.
- Did you file married filing separate? You will need to view/print a 1099-G for each person separately.
